Two fine dances come off in the Armory Hall Friday and Saturday nights. The music was fine and the beautifully dressed ladies and fine appearing young men from other cities and Jackson all made a picture well worth seeing.

During the Mardi Gras parade last Friday, James Goodin, the 11-year-old son of Prof. J. H. Goodin, who was in the parade taking the part of an Indian, was run over by an unmanageable horse, ridden by a young man whose name we could not learn, and badly injured. He was unconscious when picked up; but is now alright and none the worse from his experience in nearly losing his scalp.

Mr. Morell De Reign of Benton, Mo., attended the Home Coming last week and was the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Goodin. Mr. De Reign is a young law student of promise. The delegates to the W. C. T. U. convention at Benton, are loud in their praise of his speech before that body, it being a fine effort and very much appreciated by the earnest women.

Frank Carmean of Kennett, met with disaster coming to the Home Coming. His auto balked at Kane Creek. He was compelled to come into town on foot and borrow a buggy and in bringing his passengers in he ran into another buggy and wrecked it. Frank thinks it was his unlucky day.

We would like to suggest to the Home Comers association that a party be appointed next meeting to stand guard over the register and see that no young Americans make false entries to bother reporters. Jackson has its "smart Ales" as well as other places. Notice of our visitors to the Home Coming is a task for the copy maker without having to separate the false record from the genuine.

WANTED—The Cosmopolitan Magazine requires the services of a representative in Jackson to look after subscription renewals and to extend circulation by special methods which have proved unusually successful. Judge Edw. Hays, president of and originator of the Home Comers Association, A. F. Williams, secy., L. F. Wagner, treas., and Kent Wilson, Steve McAtee, Gottfried Kies and several others deserve special praise for their untiring efforts in making this Home Comers a decided success. They gave the people a clean entertainment from first to last and we hope they will be as successful meeting in 1911.

Resolutions.

We, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the Twenty-ninth District of Missouri, in annual convention assembled give thanks to God for His guiding care and protecting love during the past year.

Whereas, we believe the legalized liquor traffic with a attendant evils to be the greatest menace to the best welfare of the school, the home, the church and the state; and,

Whereas, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union has for many years persistently and effectively educated public sentiment toward the overthrow of this traffic; therefore,

Resolved, that we pledge our hearty co-operation to our State W. C. T. U., and so far as practicable, to other organizations which are working for State-wide prohibition in attaining this longed-for result.

Resolved, that to this end we urge each local Union to spare no effort to faithfully carry out all District and State plans.

Resolved, that we extend our heartfelt thanks to the local union and citizens of Benton who have entertained us so royally, to the pastor and trustees for the use of the Methodist Church, to the sheriff and other county officials for the use of the court house, to the Scott County Democrat for courtesies extended, to the musicians, the decoration and reception committees, and to all who in any way contributed to the success of our convention.

Be sure and see Miss Boaz's millinery before buying.

Failed in Health

"My mother died six years ago," writes Miss Ruth Ward, of Jerseyville, Ill., "and left me to care for six children. I had never been strong; and this, with the shock of her death, was too much for me.

"I failed in health. I was tired all the time and did not want to go anywhere, nor care for company. I had the headache all the time and such bearing-down pains. A very dear friend advised me to take Cardui, as it had done her so much good, so I commenced to use it and now I am in good health."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Women's pains are relieved or prevented and women's strength is quickly restored, by Cardui, the woman's tonic. You yourself know best if you need it, or not.

If you do need it, do not delay, but commence to use it at once. Every day of delay, only lets you slide further down the hill.

Don't wait, then, but begin to take Cardui today, for its use, no matter how prolonged, cannot harm you and will surely do you good.
